STOCS SCHOLARSHIPS, SUMMER 2010

Important Information

The STOCS application is an application for the scholarship only. A separate program application must be completed for admission into the study abroad program by contacting the program's sponsoring campus and program director.

*"Cost" is estimated on in-state resident undergraduate tuition, program fees, airfare, housing, three meals per day, and study abroad insurance, unless otherwise specified. Actual costs will depend partly upon airfare, number of credits, choice of accommodation (e.g., shared apartments vs. home stays, where applicable), lifestyle, and the currency exchange rate. Non-New York State Resident students should contact program directors to verify any differences in program costs. Dates and prices are subject to change. Applicants may need to budget for the cost of visa, passport, and other incidental and personal expenses. Applications should verify all costs with the program director.

All STOCS applicants must also complete a 2010-11 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 10, 2010 to be eligible for STOCS. Please see <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>

The deadline for the STOCS application is March 15, 2010. For STOCS Frequently Asked Questions, please visit: <http://www.cuny.edu/studyabroad>
