Supporting Documents

APPLICANT'S STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

On a separate sheet, write concise statement of your proposed program of study and how it will be related to your present academic program or profession and describe the personal benefits you expect to receive from the program and how you will incorporate this program into your future goals. This statement is required of all applicants and must be submitted with the application.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

One letter of recommendation from a college professor is required of all students. Students should request the letter from a professor you know well, who is able to judge your academic qualifications, and who can comment on your ability to gain from this study abroad experience. Please have the professor put the letter in a sealed envelope and sign over the seal. This letter can also be emailed to the program director, Prof. Lu, at CUNYinChina@brooklyn.cuny.edu.

CUNY Wide Travel Participation Waiver

After international flights are confirmed, with airline tickets purchased (in early April for summer program and early November for winter program), each student participating on this study in China program must complete and sign the CUNY-wide Travel Participation Waiver.

By signing your name below on this application form, you certify you understand the following:

- The syllabus for each course is available on the Program's website <http://dephome.brooklyn.cuny.edu/bc-china>.
- ALL COURSES ARE SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BY BROOKLYN COLLEGE, SUFFICIENT ENROLLMENT AND FACULTY AVAILABILITY.
- The final course offerings are to be confirmed about one week after the application deadline.
- You must ensure that you have completed all academic and other requirements, including removing any stops under your name in the system of your college, and you are cleared for course registration for the study in China program.
- If you are a CUNY student from outside Brooklyn College, you should immediately contact the study abroad office on your home campus about how to apply for the e-permit. Your e-permit allows you to be registered for courses at Brooklyn College. You must ensure to receive an e-permit from your home college immediately after your courses have been confirmed with the study in China program.
- NON-CUNY Students: If you are not a CUNY student, you also need to complete the program application for the visiting student.
- Once your courses have been confirmed, you will be registered for the courses by the IEGE (International Education and Global Engagement) of Brooklyn College.
- You are not allowed to make changes to your courses once you are registered. You must pay for your courses before departure.
