

CUNY-BC Study in China

Winter 2015-16 (Dec 30–Jan 24) to five renowned Chinese cities:
Beijing, Xi'an, Nanjing, Suzhou & Shanghai

留
學
中
國

Students choose 1-2 courses of study from the following:

1. ARTD 3108 – Art of Ancient China
2. BUSN 3175 – Asian Business
3. CHIN1010, 1020, 1030 Levels 1,2,3 & CHIN 2024 Advanced Chinese Skills
4. CLAS 1110 (i.e. CORC 1110) – Classical Cultures (China)
5. CORC 3202 – Classical Philosophies of India & China
6. CORC 3206 – Development of the Silk Road
7. HIST 3005 – The Shaping of the Modern World
8. HIST 3534 – Revolutionary China
9. SPEC 1619 – Intercultural Communications
10. SPEC 2623 – Business & Professional Communication
11. TVRA 3871 – Elements of T.V Field Production
12. SPEC 7296X – Special Topic Course for Graduate Students

Program Cost: only $3,350

Including round-trip international tickets, hotels & meals, etc
CUNY tuition is not included
Some scholarships & Financial Aid available for eligible students

Application Deadline: March 20, 2015 (first come first served)

- All courses are taught by Brooklyn College faculty for CUNY credit
- Travel by group to 5 famous Chinese cities: Beijing, Xi'an, Nanjing, Suzhou & Shanghai
- Visit historical & cultural sites (Tiananmen Square, Great Wall, Forbidden City, Terra Cotta Warriors, Buddhist Temples, Synagogues & Mosques, Silk Factory, Shanghai Bund Financial Center, etc.)
- Experience Chinese culture, interact with local people & immerse yourself in everyday Chinese life
- Side trips to Hong Kong, Tibet & Guilin
- Extended trips can be arranged (including trips to Tokyo or South Korea)

Check the website: depthome.brooklyn.cuny.edu/bc-china

(Program is open to all graduate and undergraduate students across the U.S, inside & outside CUNY)
For more info, e-mail Prof. Lu at CUNYinChina@brooklyn.cuny.edu; Tel: 718-951-5225