

Brooklyn College, The City University of New York
Department of Theatre
MFA Program in Performing Arts Management
Presents...

Careers in Performing Arts Management Seminar

Thursday, December 12, 2002, at 8:30 a.m.-12:00 noon
Lincoln Center Theater
150 west 65th Street, New York
(Stage door and Administrative Office Entrance)

RSVP by November 25th to Amy Frank at (718) 951-3188

The seminar will focus on Diversity in Graduate Education:
Jobs, Salaries, Mentoring, and Externships in Performing Arts Management

Featured Speakers:

Charlissa Jackson: Assistant Company Manager, Aida, Disney Theatricals

Veronique Le Melle: Director of Culture and Tourism,
Office of the Queens Borough President

Sunny Oh: Associate General Manager, 651 Arts

Paul r. Tetreault: Managing director, Alley Theatre

Moderator:

Jane Delgado: Chief Administrator, Henry Street Settlement

The Brooklyn College MFA Program in Performing Arts Management acknowledges the generous support of the Rockefeller Foundation, the AT&T Foundation, and the CUNY Office of Academic Affairs (CUNY Workforce Initiative).

---

Directions: Take the 1 or 9 Subway to 66th Street Station. Walk to 65th and Broadway, then head West on 65th to 150 west 65th, Look for the signs.