

WINTER IN GHANA

In cooperation with
THE INSTITUTE OF AFRICAN STUDIES
THE UNIVERSITY OF GHANA
[0,3 or 6 credits]

December 28th, 2002 – January 10th, 2003

LECTURES:

African History, the Slave Trade and the African-American Connection, political, economic, cultural, social, religious, and educational aspects of contemporary Ghana.

VISITS:

The University of Ghana and other leading educational institutions, the Slave Castles of Cape-Coast, the Obuasi Gold Mine, Museums, the DuBois Pan-African Cultural Center, Labadi Beach, Akosombo Dam, Tema Seaport, farms, palnations, factories, etc.

CONVERSATIONS:

The President of the University of Ghana, Asantehene (King of the Ashantis), educators, politicians, workers, students, and farmers, Women's groups, etc.

COST:

$2545.00 per person

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

Dr. W. Ofuatey-Kodjoe
Department of Political Science
Queens College & CUNY Graduate School
(212) 817-8670 or (718) 997-5470