____ PHIL 3314 [14] OR CLAS 3233 (ethics) OR SPEC 1618 OR SPEC 1619 OR SPEC 2623 (SPEC 1103 does not satisfy this requirement)

If you are double majoring in BMF and Accounting, take PHIL 3314 or SPEC 2623 not the other alternatives

(B) Business Electives (2 Courses)

Two additional electives in business not used to satisfy the Business Core or Capstone Seminar requirement.

To satisfy this requirement, students may take:

(a) any two courses with a business prefix including internships.

(b) one or two courses with a different prefix if cross-listed with a business course; for example, CISC 1590 which is cross-listed with BUSN 3420.

(c) The following courses may also be used to satisfy the business electives requirement: ACCT 3001, 3041, 3051, 3101, 4201, CISC 3820, ECON 3202, 3342, 3352, 3362, MATH 2601, PSYC 3171.

What we suggest you take to satisfy this requirement is two courses in an area that interests you. For example, if you are interested in finance, take two advanced finance classes, if you are interested in marketing, take two advanced marketing classes., etc. Internships are another possibility.

(C) Capstone Seminar (1 Course) One of the following seminars (they are writing-intensive): Seminars are for graduating seniors only.
